

ROBERT BULL, JR., CFRE

Senior Vice President

Robert Bull has over 15 years of successful fundraising experience for nonprofit organizations, both as a development officer and as a consultant. His professional fundraising skills include major gift strategy development and solicitation; special events management; direct mail and phonathon organization; volunteer recruitment and development; and “the art of asking for money.”

Mr. Bull joined The Compass Group after a six-year career as a senior consultant with Ketchum, Inc. Throughout his career he has provided fundraising counsel to more than 25 nonprofit organizations including:

- Center City Consortium
- Children’s Museum of Cleveland
- Everyman Theatre
- Indian Creek School
- Lebanon Family Health Service
- Long Wharf Theater
- Mesa Verde Foundation
- The National Agricultural Center and Hall of Fame
- Niagra Christian Collegiate
- Norbel School
- Pittsburgh Children’s Museum
- Port Discovery
- The Children’s Museum in Baltimore
- StoneBridge School
- Teton Valley Ranch Camp
- Tubman African American Museum
- Whitby School
- Yellowstone Association

A native of Baltimore, Mr. Bull is a graduate of the Baltimore School for the Arts and holds a degree in theatre and arts administration from Goucher College. He is a member of the Association for Fundraising Professionals (AFP) and is recognized as a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE). He is a frequent presenter and panelist at regional conferences sponsored by AFP and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).

When Mr. Bull is not fundraising for Compass clients, he volunteers at his alma mater and philanthropy of choice, Goucher College. Honored to serve the college as a trustee, he is actively involved on the board’s development committee, cultivating and soliciting fellow alumni for the advancement of the institution. He currently serves as the president of the Alumnae/i Association of Goucher College (AAGC), and prior to this appointment served for five years as chair of the college’s annual fund. He has a particular interest in the development of young alumni and often volunteers for various alumni-sponsored student activities.

Aside from advancing nonprofit organizations, Mr. Bull enjoys extensive travel throughout West Africa, as well as outdoor exercise and physical fitness.
